

Little D and the Munchable, Gulpable Tale of the Missing Milk

Fill in the blanks for each kind of word below:

(1) Verb _____ (10) Noun (thing) _____

(2) Time _____ (11) Vegetable Group food _____

(3) Adjective _____ (12) Place in your school _____

(4) Noun-plural (things) _____ (13) Color _____

(5) Grain Group food _____ (14) Noun - plural _____

(6) Meat Group food _____ (15) Room or place in your school _____

(7) Flavor _____ (16) Your teacher's name _____

(8) Noun (thing) _____ (17) Flavor _____

(9) Color _____

Little D and the Munchable, Gulpable Tale of the Missing Milk

Today, our school had two surprise guests, Prince Waffle from the Royal Food Family and Little D the Dragon. They _____ all the way from the Pyramid Palace so they were thirsty and hungry when they arrived. Luckily, it was _____ so I took them to the cafeteria.

(1) Verb

(2) Time

Prince Waffle was tired from the long journey, and he needed some _____ energy.

(3) Adjective

The cafeteria was full of _____. There was delicious food, too.

(4) Noun – plural (things)

Prince Waffle chose a _____ for energy. Little D, wanted to strengthen his

(5) Grain Group food

muscles so he ate a _____. Prince Waffle and Little D were also very thirsty.

(6) Meat Group food

They wanted a healthy drink to help them build strong bones and teeth. They decided on _____ milk. When Prince Waffle turned to drink his milk, it was gone! Little D called Sir Milkford on his _____ to help them find the missing milk. Sir Milkford arrived at school right away driving a

(7) Flavor

(8) Noun (thing)

_____. He discovered a trail of _____ lumps that led to the

(9) Color

(10) Noun (thing)

(11) Vegetable Group food

_____. “Hmm, the milk thief eats vegetables so the thief can see in dark,” thought Sir

(12) Place in your school

Milkford. The trail of vegetables turned into a _____ pile of _____. “Hmm, if the milk

(13) Color

(14) Noun – plural

thief eats fruit the thief must have healthy skin,” said Sir Milkford. He followed the trail of fruit, all the way to the corner of the _____. Sir Milkford found

(15) Room or place in your school _____ surrounded by healthy, Five Food Group foods, drinking delicious

(16) Your teacher’s name

_____ milk.

(17) Flavor

Write a sentence below to finish the story:

Draw a picture about story in the box:

Name _____ Teacher _____

Grade _____ School _____